

Extraordinary Values!

Neckwear Saturday.

This spring and summer promises to be big Neckwear Seasons. The attached collars on Shirt Waists are being turned down or cut off. This affords a much larger variety for a woman's neck dress besides being prettier.

This Saturday Sale presents an opportunity of a wide range for selection, there being about 120 collars included. The price too (all important) is so a half dozen wouldn't be extravagance if you bought them—rather a good saving investment. Many of these are exquisite little hand made affairs, others are designed plainly for laundering. You have the pick of the whole lot at just half original price. Twenty-five cent ones for 12 1-2c. Fifty cent ones for 25c. Seventy-five cent ones at 37 1-2c. One dollar ones for 50c. Two dollar ones for $1.00. Early selections of course are best.

Half Price for Saturday.

T. C. Carson went to Bethel this morning on business.
At Abbott's you find some extra values in sample suits.
A swell program at the Theatorium. See adv. on last page.
Dr. L. L. Leonard went to Burlington this morning on business.
Stanley Berry of Barton is visiting friends at Goddard seminary.
Mrs. E. M. Laws went to Boston yesterday for a two weeks' visit.
Abbey & Imbrie fishing tackle is the best made. At the N. D. Phelps Co.
Lots of money saved by buying your clothing during the Arcade Quilt Business sale.
Do not buy your fishing tackle until you have examined The N. D. Phelps Co. line.
Another lot of maple syrup from Geo. Sprague just arrived at Granite City Creamery.

We are closer to waist manufacturers than many others. See the new styles at Vaughan's.
"The Vanderbilt Cup" company went to Randolph this morning, where they show this evening.
The Thieving Band and The Lively Barrel are two of the many pictures at the Pavilion to-night.
High-grade muslin underwear for ladies, priced to suit you, during the Arcade Quilt Business sale.
To-night at the opera house the Fiske Stock Co. will present "Forget Me Not," with a new list of specialties.
The insurance adjusters are at work adjusting the loss caused by the recent fire in S. J. Segel & company's store.
W. W. Lapoint has leased the opera house at Bristol and intends to run a moving picture show until September.
Dorothy Dodd and Cross shoes for ladies and Crockett shoes for men are included in the Arcade Quilt Business sale.
Mrs. H. W. Scott and her daughter went to Burlington this morning to consult a specialist concerning her daughter's throat.
The members of Vincifia club will be given a little spread on Saturday evening by the committee which had charge of the recent billiard-pool banquet.
The F. B. Cate Real Estate agency has sold for Harry Wilkinson his 100-acre farm in Barre Town to Fred E. Perrin of Plainfield; consideration not mentioned.

Don't forget that "Queen Quality" leads in style and durability. The largest consignment of spring cordons ever made to the People's Shoe Store just received.
A. Giachino at the Vermont Fruit store will commence to put out his stand on Saturday, with a full line of first-class fresh fruit. His intentions are to sell fruits at low prices to please the general public.

Rev. William Wight Laite, pastor of the People's church in Montpelier, delivered the message last evening at the holiness revival service in Worthen hall. The meeting was one of great enjoyment, and many were blessed. Evangelist John Weightman of Seleta, N. Y., has returned and was in charge of the meeting. He will be present to-night at 7 o'clock, and all are invited to attend.

Announcement is made that the Montpelier Association of Congregational Ministers will meet at the Kellogg-Hubbard library in Montpelier Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. The Rev. D. H. Strong of Williamstown will give a paper on "What has Psychology contributed (1) to the Conception of Man and (2) to Relief in God." The Rev. Donald Fraser of Berlin will speak on "The Church and Psycho-therapy," and the Rev. L. F. Reed of Montpelier on "Pragmatism and Theology."

"Busy Izzy's Boodle," which comes to the opera house next Tuesday evening, is said to be a musical farce in the best expression of that term. George Sidney, who will be in the title role, is an unctious and painstaking comedian, and last year, his fifth as a star, was an unusual instance of success. Among the new songs this year are: "That's What My Organ Plays"; "Under the Mazuma Tree"; "Zoo Loo"; "My Sweet"; "The Circus Queen"; "Good Bye, Sweetheart"; "I Want a Gibson Man."

Only by being in a measure an outlet for large manufacturers' and jobbers' surplus stocks of shoes at cut prices, and of which they make a specialty, are A. A. Smith and Brother enabled to offer at apparently ruinous prices women's and children's new shoes. Several large invoices have been received by them this week. One shipment alone contained nearly one carload of shoes. It is safe to figure on a saving of 25 per cent to 50 per cent, on shoes for the whole family. Come and see.

Those who saw the real automobile in action on the opera house stage last night did not perhaps appreciate the efforts which it took to add this seemingly trivial detail to round out the portrayal of "The Vanderbilt Cup." The auto is no slight affair, weighing 3,000 pounds, and it had to be hauled up the front stairs by block and tackle. Then, to get the machine onto the stage, two rows of seats had to be removed and then replaced; and after the performance removed and replaced again. It took ten men most of the afternoon getting the machine up there. According to one of the chauffeurs, this auto, a Peerless racer, has been a hoodoo ever since it was built, having a record of three men killed, including two niggers. He explained that the "niggers" were killed at Detroit, Mich., when the machine got unmanageable in a race and plunged through a fence.
